

A Credit Course for
The Graduate Certificate for Women in Ministry:

Women in Ministry and Leadership

Offered this Fall 2016
September 23-24, November 18-19

Taught by
Dr. Margaret Kostenberger
and Linda Reed

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course will include an overview of the biblical teaching on man and woman, including the uniqueness of their roles in the home and church as well as an exploration of the practical components of being a Christian woman in ministry and leadership in today's church. This course will also consider four essential components of ministry and leadership: call, character, craft and competencies. Various methods for leading will be explored, including large-group ministries and one-to-one mentoring, with examples provided from biblical, historical, and contemporary women in ministry and leadership.

Margaret Kostenberger is the co-author of God's Design for Men and Women

For more information:

Linda Reed at lreed@heritage-theo.edu

To register for seminary credit or audit:

Karyn Mowbray at kmowbray@heritageseminary.net

